battles with the ever changing weather conditions here, our athletes were finally able to compete and show others what Valdez strength, jumping and speed is all about. At the Palmer Invitational Track Meet each athlete was allowed to participate in only three events. Only five boys and five girls could represent our school in any event. This posed a challenge for our coaches because our student athletes are so versatile that they are capable of doing well in many of the events that this sport has to offer. So the coaches made it their goal to let the athletes ultimately decide which events they wanted to compete in.
