Marta Zekan After on-air stints in Denver and San Diego, Marta came to KING FM in 1994. A California native and pianist, she has a music degree from UC San Diego, and an MFA in Voice Training/Speech Coaching. Along the way, she found a happy home in musical theatre, working as a vocal coach, music director, and keyboardist. She visited Barcelona and Granada a few years ago and is especially excited to experience Madrid for the first time, on this KING FM adventure. Daily Itinerary

Sagrada Familia, Barcelona

Monday, October 15

Group flight on American departs SeaTac Airport for Madrid, via Dallas Fort-Worth, with arrival the following day.

Day 1: Tuesday, October 16

BENVENIDOS!

We arrive in Madrid, with its world class museums, wide and elegant boulevards, and the narrow, winding streets of the old quarter. Under Hapsburg rule and that of Philip II Madrid became the capital of the most powerful empire in Europe in the mid-16th century. Our home for the next five nights is the Hotel Villa Real, a 5-star hotel adorned with ancient sculpture in an ideal central location. Our gala welcome dinner in the old town is preceded by a reception at the hotel sipping cava, the Spanish bubbly.

Day 2: Wednesday, October 17

OLD MADRID & THE LSO

After breakfast (offered daily at both hotels), we set off to explore the old town of the capital, traversing the broad avenues surrounding the Palacio Real, the sumptuous royal seat built in 1738 by Philip V, winding our way through the medieval streets around the 17th century Plaza Mayor, the classical central square. Lunch is near the Plaza. In our first musical event of the tour, the London Symphony Orchestra, arguably the best in the UK, visits Madrid for a concert in the Auditorio Nacional. Spanish maestro Jaime Martín leads the orchestra in music by De Falla, Lalo, and the Firebird by Stravinsky. Famed violinist Christian Tetzlaff is the soloist in Lalo's Symphonie espagnole.

Guernica, Pablo Picasso

Alcázar, Segovia

Day 3: Thursday, October 18

EL ESCORIAL & SEGOVIA

El Escorial, built at the foot of the Guadarrama Mountains by Philip II as a central point from which to rule his vast Bourbon empire, was one of the largest buildings in the world on its completion in 1584. We'll tour the rich but austere palace, with its 16 courtyards and 15 cloisters, view the tombs of Charles V and the emperors who followed him (and that of his son Don Carlo of Schiller and Verdi fame), and the solemn church. Then we travel to the pretty city of Segovia, further northwest, dominated by its spectacular Roman aqueduct, cathedral and fairytale castle, known as the Alcazar, and have lunch there. Evening free.

Day 4: Friday, October 19

GUERNICA & LAS MENINAS

Madrid is also home to many world-class art museums, all a walk from the hotel. The Reina Sofia is home to perhaps the most significant painting of the 20th century, Picasso's "Guernica," a searing commentary on the Spanish Civil War. Lunch follows our tour there. In the afternoon, we visit a world treasure, the Prado Museum, unrivalled for its old master paintings by the great Spanish artists Velasquez, Goya, and Zurbarán, not to mention the Flemish surrealist Hieronymus Bosch. Evening free.

Day 5: Saturday, October 20

TOLEDO & FLAMENCO!

Today we visit the ancient walled city of Toledo, built atop a steep hill bordered on three sides by the River Tagus, and long a prime example of Spain's melting pot of Arab, Christian and Hebrew cultures. We'll visit the Cathedral, Gothic but with decidedly Moorish elements, and through the narrow, medieval streets and ancient churches, seek out masterpieces of Toledo's longtime resident, the painter El Greco. Lunch is in the town center. Tonight back in Madrid, we climax our visit in the capital and revel in the swirling dance, plangent voice, and beguiling guitar of flamenco, including dinner, at one of Madrid's best tablaos.

Day 6: Sunday, October 21

BARCELONA

We bid adios to Madrid and board the high-speed AVE train to Barcelona (with lunch en route), one of the most exciting cities in Europe, the capital of the province of Catalonia. Upon arrival, we'll head to the Barri Gòtic, the old Roman center of town, and check in to the five-star Grand Hotel Central near the Cathedral. Dinner is at a fine restaurant in the Plaza Real (Royal Square), prior to a performance of Bellini's stirring drama I Puritani (The Puritans) at the Gran Teatre del Liceu, one of the best opera houses in the world. This new production is by brilliant Irish director Annilese Miskimmon.

Park Güell, Barcelona

● Day 7: Monday, October 22

GAUDI & SPANISH ART NOUVEAU

In the morning, our expert local guide takes us for a walk to explore the Barri Gotic's ancient streets, monuments, and market. The great architect Antonio Gaudí, the principal exponent of Barcelona's modernist movement, set the design world on fire at the turn of the 20th century with his buildings of undulating forms, illusionistic exteriors, and surprising design in all media. Lunch is in a wonderful building he designed. Then we visit three of his great works: the Park Güell, modeled on English designs, the fabulously-spired church known as the Sagrada Família, and the Casa Milà. Evening free.

● Day 8: Tuesday, October 23
CASALS

The great Catalan cellist Pablo Casals originally built his dream house along the seaside of the town of Sant Salvador, El Vendrell, in 1910. He lived in what is now called the Villa Casals until 1939 when he was forced into exile, never to return. Now a museum and foundation dedicated to his life and music, it provides a venue for today's excursion and for a private concert exclusively for the group. A wine tasting at the nearby vineyard Augustus Forum precedes lunch on the seaside. Your evening is free.

● Day 9: Wednesday, October 24

MIRÓ, PICASSO AND THE PALAU

Barcelona is the city where Pablo Picasso established himself as a major artist. We tour the Museu Picasso, cobbled together between two Renaissance-era houses, and featuring many early works of the master given to his adopted town. Then we climb the hill of Montjuïc overlooking Barcelona, the scene of the 1992 Olympic Games, and home to the Fundació Miró, a superb collection of painting and sculpture by Joan Miró, Catalonia's most famous artist. Tonight at the spectacular Palau de la Música Catalana, a riot of stunning florid decoration, the fine Russian pianist Arcadi Volodos performs music by Schubert and his compatriots Rachmaninoff and Scriabin.

● Day 10: Thursday, October 25

LA BARTOLI

A free day in Barcelona for additional sight-seeing, shopping or just strolling the vibrant streets. The beach on the Mediterranean Sea is not far away! This evening our gala farewell dinner takes place at the historic El Quatre Gats, a popular meeting place for artists of the Spanish avant-garde, including Picasso. Back at the Palau, the great mezzo-soprano Cecilia Bartoli sings one of her classic roles, Angelina, the title role in Rossini's brilliant La Cenerentola (Cinderella) in a concert performance of the opera. The period orchestra, Les Musiciens du Prince is led by Gianluca Capuano.

Day 11: Friday, October 26
