Attachment I

D. Outreach Activities (con't)

2. Internship Programs

a. Unpaid Internships

Purpose / General Description

The purpose of the WBEB-FM internship program is to provide college students (or college age young people - school enrollment is not necessary) with a fully functional, comprehensive knowledge of station operations and the radio industry at large. Internships must be a minimum of one semester and can be a maximum of two semesters. No interns under the age of 18 will be accepted.

Requirements

In-House

Interns are required to work at WBEB-FM between 10 and 30 hours per week between the hours of 10 am to 4 pm. They function as Support Personnel/Students of Radio - through a variety of weekly responsibilities, management introduction meetings and project assignments from each department at the station.

On a daily basis the interns work directly with the Event Coordinating Manager and Assistant Event Coordinator on tasks to facilitate event organization, marketing and promotions. These tasks range from department maintenance functions (answering phones, filing, faxing, downloading digital pictures) to long/short term research projects. The interns are encouraged to suggest and implement original ideas to improve processes as they relate to both daily activities and research projects

On-Site

Interns also work on-site at events as a member of the part-time promotions team - conducting games and contests while acting as a public relations liaison. Specifically event staff is called on to load, execute and break down WBEB-FM activities at client appearances, interact with the public and client as a staff member/station representative. On-site activities include the WBEB-FM Plinko, kick ball, enter to wins, face painting, balloon animals Tshirt trivia, etc.

Compensation

Interns are not compensated for in-office work or event activities performed during the hours of 10 am to 4 pm Monday through Friday. When scheduled to perform event activities outside of these hours the intern will be paid $8.50 / hour - this is the standard compensation for WBEB-FM promotion assistants.

Results

The Intern will cultivate broad-based radio industry knowledge as well as a detailed knowledge of the inner-workings of Philadelphia's top-rated adult contemporary radio station

b. Promotional Assistant - "Paid Internship"

Purpose / General Description

The purpose of the Promotional Assistant or "Paid Internship" program is to provide college students (or college age young people - school enrollment is not necessary) with a fully functional, comprehensive knowledge of station operations and the radio industry at large. No Promotional Assistants under the age of 18 will be accepted.

Requirements

In-House

Promotional Assistants are hired to work at WBEB-FM Monday - Friday between the hours of 9 am to 5 pm. They function as support Personnel/Students of Radio - through a variety of weekly responsibilities from various departments (as needed) at the station.

The Promotional Assistants work directly with the Event Coordinator on tasks to facilitate the sales process, event organization, marketing and promotions. These tasks range from department maintenance functions (answering phones, filing, faxing, downloading digital pictures) to long/short term projects.

On-Site

Promotional Assistants also work on-site at events as a member of the part-time promotions team - conducting games and contests while acting as a public relations liaison. Specifically, event staff is called on to load, execute and break down WBEB-FM activities at client appearances, interact with the public and client as a staff member/station representative. On-site activities include the WBEB-FM Plinko, kick ball, enter to wins, face painting, balloon animals Tshirt trivia, etc.

Compensation

Promotional Assistants are paid $8.50 / hour - this is the standard compensation for WBEB-FM Promotions Assistants.

Results

The Promotional Assistant will cultivate broad-based radio industry knowledge as well as a detailed knowledge of the inner-workings of Philadelphia's top-rated adult contemporary radio station through:

- * Proactive participation in the aforementioned on-site activities and projects.
- * Daily interaction with and feedback from the Event Coordinator and various department managers.

c. Morning Show Internship Program

WBEB-FM recruits interns from various Universities to work with the morning radio show in the Programming Department. Some of those who have participated in the program are interns from Temple University, Newmann University, St. Joseph's University, Bucknell, etc.

The Morning Show Interns can expect to learn how to screen phone calls to go on air, log the entire show, help book celebrity and local news guests for interview purposes, edit and record various audio segments, search for show playback, update and help maintain show website, etc.

Early morning hours are a must!

d. News and Public Affairs Internship Program

WBEB-FM recruits interns from local Universities to train in the News and Public Affairs Department. Included in those who have participated in the program are interns from Temple University, Rowan University, Chestnut Hill College, University of Delaware and the Baldwin School.

The News and Public Affairs Intern functions as associate producer of the hour-long, award-winning program "The Women's File," booking guests, assisting feature contributors, researching program segments, writing introductions and segues, corresponding with listeners and assisting in the editing process. The interns also learn to cover news stories, conduct a journalistic interview, develop community outreach programs, write Public Service Announcements and produce a news documentary.
