

The CIRCUIT-RIDER'S GUIDE TO THE HELENOR SITES

Exact locations of the five Historic Sites in the Helenor "Cluster"

1. The Interpretive Center at the Jasper County Historical Society Museum— 479 N. Van Rensselaer Street in Rensselaer. GPS reading: 40 56 26.24, -087 09 20.42
2. The Rosebud Schoolhouse at the County Fairgrounds. GPS reading: 40 56 25.83, -087 11 07.53
3. Helenor's grave site in Sandridge Cemetery on the south side of Jasper County Road West 250N, one-third mile east of CR N500W; her grave is in the southwest corner of the cemetery; GPS reading: 41 02 53.97, -087 08 09.56
4. and 5. The Alter stone house and Alter Cemetery on the south side of Jasper County Road West 1600S, 7/10 of a mile west of CR S880W; GPS reading: 40 46 44.42, -087 13 28.89

These five locations together are recognized by The United Methodist Church as Historic Site No. 487. A small marker denoting this honor is attached to the pillow stone at Helenor's graveside (SITE 3 on the map).