Updated* I-29 Crash – Fargo

On Tuesday, December 15th at 6:51 pm, NDHP Troopers were attempting to stop Jason Simeon, 47 YOA, Glyndon, MN. There was probable cause to arrest Simeon for 1st Degree Sexual Assault after an investigation by the Glyndon Police Department.

NDHP troopers located Simeon's vehicle, a 2007 Dodge Durango, in Fargo and were attempting to stop it northbound on I-29, between the 32nd Ave and I-94 exits. Seconds after the troopers activated their emergency lights, Simeon accelerated away from the troopers, swerved to the right and struck a bridge pillar for the I-94 overpass. The Dodge struck the bridge pillar head on and came to rest against the bridge pillar.

Simeon was the driver of the Dodge and lone occupant. He was pronounced dead on scene. The incident remains under investigation by the NDHP.

The NDHP was assisted on scene by the Fargo Police Department, Fargo Fire Department, Cass County Sheriff's Office, NDDOT and Clay County, MN Sheriff's Office.
