Press Release

VCPS Education Foundation hires New Director- Wendi Wilmes

May 6, 2021

Valley City Public Schools is proud to announce the hiring of Mrs. Wendi Wilmes as the new director for the Education Foundation. Wilmes brings an outstanding knowledge of education having previously served as a Kindergarten Teacher for more than 11 years at Jefferson Elementary. Wilmes began this new position in April and she has already hit the ground running preparing the foundation for the 2021-2022 school year. Wilmes says, "I am really excited to be the new Foundation Director for Valley City Public Schools. I am looking forward to finding ways to help the students and staff at VCPS with activities or materials they might need or want to have in their classrooms".

The Education Foundation was created in 2000 with a goal to improve the quality of education at Valley City Public Schools. With more than 50 members in the Hi-Liner 2000 Club, the Education Foundation has prioritized expanding academic activities, staff development, and growing technology in the school district. For the past five years, the Education Foundation has been a strong supporter of mental health and served students' needs through the Access for All Program.

Wendi Wilmes is married to Scott and they are the proud parents of three children, Abby, Alyssa, and Zac. Anyone interested in learning more about the Valley City Public Schools Education Foundation may contact Wendi at 701.845.0483 or email at wendi.wilmes@k12.nd.us. Additional information is also available online at www.hiliners.org (click about us and education foundation).
