

Celebrate EARTH WEEK!

TUESDAY, APRIL 22 -

Valley City State University

1-2PM: Dr. Rebecca Phillips, director of Ecological Insights, will be speaking at the Rhoades Science Center on “Soil, Carbon, and Climate Change.”

2-3:30PM: TABLES ON THE GREEN!

Hopefully it will be a glorious spring day; if not, we will celebrate in the Student Center. Stop by for lots of valuable information and give-aways!

7PM: “THE JUNGLE” at Rhoades Science Center. An update on Upton Sinclair’s 1906 book on the American meat industry, this film was shown at the Woodstock Festival in 2024, and will premier in NYC September 2025. Matt Wechsler is an Emmy-nominated director whose other films include Sustainable, and Right to Harm; he also produced Last Man Fishing.

THURSDAY, APRIL 24 - BCHS Museum

7PM: Patrick Sommer (Dark Sky International) presents the film “Northern Nights, Starry Skies.”

Sommer’s mission is to raise awareness about light pollution, its effects on our ecosystem including animal and human health, and the loss of our connections to the night sky.

Earth Week is sponsored by: Valley City State University, Barnes County Historical Society, and ‘What in the World Is Going On?’

All events are free and open to the public.
