FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 9, 2020

Indianola, Iowa

The Warren County Administration Building will be open to the public beginning September 15, 2020. Citizens can access the facility through the East Entrance on Buxton Street. Temperatures will be taken at the door and masks are recommended while in the facility. County staff have continually worked since March 17, 2020 when the building was closed to public access to assist in slowing the spread of COVID-19. Many departments will continue to serve by appointment only. Please consult the list below or call ahead to confirm availability. Citizens are encouraged to use mail-in or online services when possible.
