Souvenirs

We will have several souvenirs available for purchase which will have the 2018 Reunion logo designed by Kelly Cox Nielsen (Class of 1980). There will be t-shirts, both white and gray, in a variety of sizes ranging from Youth Small through Large and Adult sizes Small through 3X-large. Additionally, coffee mugs and koozies are available for purchase as a way to remember the Reunion weekend.

The Alumni Directory will again be made available in book or CD format. Another souvenir which will directly help fund the street dance are two books written by GCHS alums. Chad Elliott's children's book "Wilderman's Treetop Tales," which comes with a musical CD of children's songs and Brick Imerman's book "Soldiers of the Freedom Rock" are both available for advance purchase. Both authors have graciously agreed to donate the proceeds from the books to help cover the street dance costs.

Volunteers

We are in search of volunteers to assist with the two street dances - Friday night on Third Street and Saturday night at the Fairgrounds. If interested, please contact Mike Underwood at 515-975-2248, sign up through SignUp Genius at www.SignUpGenius.com/go/508094DA8AE23A0FB6-reunion or via email to allgchsalumni@gmail.com
