Blind Date with a book for Tween, Teens, and Adults | Entire month of February
Single? In a relationship? "It's complicated"? No matter! During the entire month of February, you can head to the Washington Public Library and have a blind date with a book! "Blind Date with a Book", is back, and it's not just for adults this year! Tweens and teens will have their own selection of books.

Recycled Runway | The month of February
We challenge you to design a piece of clothing out of recycled material. This event is open to all ages! Need book pages? We got you covered! Send a picture(s) of your completed look to jenisa.harris@washington.lib.ia.us by February 28th. The outfit with the most votes on FB will be the winner!
