

May Events

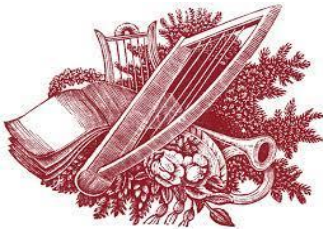

Sticks & Strings in the Park, Friday, May 7 @ 12 pm

Join us with your knitting, crochet, quilting or other projects in Central Park! Bring a lawn chair so we can social distance, wear a mask if you like, and enjoy a relaxing noon hour with your fiber arts friends.

Adult Spelling Bee, Friday, May 7 @ 6:30 pm

Come together, via Zoom, for a fun old-fashioned spelling bee. Call the library at 653-2726 or email me at tammy.valentine@washington.lib.ia.us to register.

Concert, Chamber Music, Tuesday, May 18th @ 12 pm

Our concert will be found on Facebook for you to enjoy. We are featuring YANA.

Book Club Discussion, Friday, May 21st @ 10 am

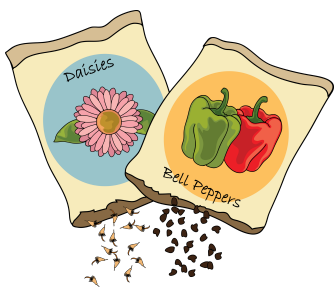

Let's discuss our favorite fictional characters and why they are our favorite!

Washington Writers' Workshop Zoom, Saturday, May 22 @ 10 am

Join us for a presentation on craft by our visiting writer, Dr. Stephen Coyne, Professor Emeritus from Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa. Dr. Coyne retired in 2020 after thirty-one years teaching American literature and creative writing. The first hour of this program is devoted to the author's presentation and the second hour to workshopping the submissions.

Email leann.kunz@washington.lib.ia.us for a link to join.

WPL's Seed Exchange Library is open!

Please help our Seed Exchange Library grow freely by donating seeds. We will take edibles and ornamentals, store-brought and home-harvested! They will be shared with the community. Take a packet, leave a packet.

PLANT. GROW. RETURN.
