“I (re)discovered you guys this past week and I really want to say thank you to the comfort you’re providing not just me but anyone who tunes in. I have very bad anxiety and it’s really helping. Even pulled out an old AM/FM radio (I know, I can stream). Please stay safe and thanks again!”

“I am writing to you folks at KING to express my immense gratitude for your continuing and steadfast work to keep the music alive and vibrant. I have been listening to classical music since I was a child and it has always given me peace in my heart. Now we are in the midst of this terrible pandemic, I feel we need this music in our lives more than ever to ground us, to soothe the chaos of the world and to bring hope when sometimes there is little hope to be had. I hope for the best in these times ahead and I trust that this music is a large part of what will help us endure whatever comes next. Peace to you all.”

“I am a big fan of KING in normal times, but listening to that livestream for Byrd Ensemble nearly brought me to tears. Thank you so much for helping to preserve live music in Seattle with your concert broadcasts and for letting us know how we can purchase “tickets” for a performance to continue to support these groups financially during this time.”
