

Political Strategist Roger Stone Joins Red Apple Audio Networks and Flagship WABC Radio

The Roger Stone Show is Already in Nine Markets Including New York, St. Louis, Albuquerque, and More

New York, NY – September 3, 2024 – Famed political strategist Roger Stone brings his unapologetic and outspoken style to the Red Apple Audio Networks and flagship WABC Radio in New York every Sunday afternoon. The Roger Stone Show already airs in nine markets across the country. In addition to Red Apple Media's WABC Radio in New York, The Roger Stone Show is heard in St. Louis, Albuquerque, and more.

The first two hours of The Roger Stone Show, from 3 pm to 5 pm, focus on national and world news and are available to radio stations across America via the Red Apple Audio Networks. In addition to the two national hours, WABC Radio also carries an additional hour of The Roger Stone Show, from 5pm to 6pm, concentrating on local news and issues specific to the New York area.

“Several U.S. presidents have relied on Roger’s common-sense judgement and advice,” said John Catsimatidis, Owner and CEO of Red Apple Media. “His insightful commentary on the political landscape and what’s ahead for America will be of tremendous value to our listeners in New York, around the country, and around the world.”

“John has done a great job bringing in big names from politics, business, and entertainment and put them on WABC Radio and the Red Apple Audio Networks,” said Stone. “I’m looking forward to enjoying being on the radio, sharing my perceptions about what’s going on in Washington and the world, and connecting with listeners across America.”
