The three-hour overnight talk show airs Saturday and Sunday mornings from 2–5 a.m. ET and delivers a one-of-a-kind mix of raw honesty, humor, and human connection that’s resonating with late-night listeners.

McCormack began hosting the overnight timeslot on 77WABC in May and immediately struck a deep chord with audiences. According to Nielsen Audio data, Another Side of Midnight with TJ McCormack has consistently ranked #1 in Average Share of commercial radio stations on Saturdays, and #1 or #2 on Sundays, Persons 12+ in the New York Metro.*

“TJ has dominated overnight ratings,” said Chad Lopez, President of Red Apple Media and 77WABC Radio. “His authentic voice, background in comedy, and powerful personal journey make him uniquely relatable. He’s bringing something real to the airwaves—and it’s connecting.”

McCormack, who has been sober for over 20 years, openly shares his experience with addiction and recovery—offering hope and honesty in the overnight hours when many listeners need it most.

“Joining 77WABC and Red Apple Audio Networks is a dream,” said McCormack. “This show is about real life—messy, funny, frustrating, beautiful life. If you’re awake at 3 a.m. and feel like you’re the only one going through something, you’re not. I’ve been there. We talk about politics, culture, addiction, recovery, family—whatever keeps you up at night or gets you through the day.”

With more than two decades of experience as a stand-up comic, writer, and political commentator, McCormack brings an unfiltered but uplifting style to radio. He’s appeared on Fox News, CNN, and MSNBC, and previously hosted mornings on WVOX. His political background includes speechwriting and communications strategy for elected officials and national campaigns.

Another Side of Midnight with TJ McCormack invites listeners into a world where real conversations happen — where the shadows are explored and the human spirit takes center stage.
