The Joe Concha Show

The Joe Concha Show Weekday Edition

Fast-Paced. Trusted. Relatable.

Every weeknight from 9PM to 10PM ET, Red Apple Audio Networks brings Joe Concha, one of the most trusted and fearless voices in media to the nighttime lineup of stations across the country.

Joe Concha is a nationally recognized columnist, bestselling author of Come On, Man!, and a go-to commentator on today's most pressing political, media, and cultural issues. Night after night, Joe breaks down the stories dominating the news cycle, cutting through media bias, challenging conventional narratives, and delivering honest analysis with sharp wit and unmistakable personality.

Whether he's holding the media accountable, questioning political power, or sitting down with influential voices shaping the national conversation, Joe offers listeners something rare in today's media landscape: clarity, credibility, and common sense. His style is fast-paced, informed, and refreshingly relatable, equal parts insider perspective and straight talk.

The Joe Concha Show is smart, engaging talk radio designed for listeners winding down their day but still hungry for real conversation. Informative, entertaining, and impossible to tune out, Joe Concha makes weeknights at 9PM the place where the day's biggest stories finally make sense.
