

On-Air Personality and Digital/Social/Promotion Event assistant

McKibbin Media Group is looking for a Co-host for the K-105.3 Morning show.

Join the amazing team at McKibbin Media and work with our fun and talented on air staff. Your daily activities will include: show prep, commercial production, assisting with imaging, client remotes, podcast development and more.

You will also work with the Promotions Director on events, and developing and implementing social and digital strategies for McKibbin Media Group. You will work at our big events like the Fall Festival and Wedding Expo. Assist with social media management, post news stories on wkhm.com and help with the overall content of McKibbin Media's websites in Jackson. Collaborate with the Promotions Director, Local Sales Manager and General Manager to help create, execute and train our sales professionals.

If you have a passion and talent for working on-air and love working in the digital space, this position is perfect for you! McKibbin Media offers competitive compensation, benefits and the opportunity to work with a fun, outgoing and creative team! Please send cover letter, resume and a mp3 file of a recent aircheck to Dennis Worden, General Manager: dworden@k1053.com
