

"Warm up at Providence Valdez Medical Center"

Providence Valdez Medical Center is hosting a "Chili Cook-off" during Frosty Fever on Wednesday, February 26th! Fill out the information below to enter your chili into the contest. All entries should be submitted to the hospital (information desk) or faxed to (907) 834 - 1890 by 4pm on February 24th.

Group/ Individual entering:

Telephone:

Email:

Check the category you are entering:

- Meat Chili (To include any meat... wild game etc.)
- Vegetarian Chili
- Cornbread

Rules:

1. Chili must be served in a crock pot style dish to keep at a safe temperature (You only need to make enough for the crock pot).
2. Feel free to share your recipe if you would like but not required. Your name however cannot be on display with your entry. You will be assigned an entry number for judging.
3. Feel free to have a special display along with your entry (It may increase your chances of winning as it is judged by the public).
4. Entry and displays must be set up and ready for judging by 10:45am on February 26th.
5. Clean up starts at 2pm that day.
6. You may enter more than one Chili or category.
7. The public will be sampling and judging your chili from 11am - 2pm - You do not need to be present to serve as it is a self-serve event.

We will supply:

1. A section of a table for your chili and display.
2. Electrical outlet for your entry
3. Serving utensils and cups for the sampling of your entry by the public/judges.

Prizes:

1. $100 Food Cache gift cards for 1st place in all 3 categories!