

Proclamation

Wycoff Quadruplets Day

WHEREAS, the City of Sac City proudly boasts a rich history steeped in resilience and community spirit; and

WHEREAS, the remarkable journey of the Wycoff quadruplets, born in 1934 amidst the aftermath of a devastating tornado, stands as a testament to the unwavering strength and determination of our community; and

WHEREAS, the arrival of Lester, LaVerne, LaVonne, and the late Lorraine marked a significant chapter in Sac City's history, drawing the spotlight of media outlets and sparking discussions nationwide; and

WHEREAS, the ingenuity of Dr. Swearingen, who utilized makeshift incubators and provided round-the-clock care, exemplifies the spirit and resourcefulness and compassion that defines our community; and

WHEREAS, despite facing fleeting moments of fame and enduring ongoing challenges, the Wycoff quadruplets epitomize resilience and perseverance, embodying the very essence of Sac City's spirit;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Scott Bundt, Mayor of the City of Sac City, Iowa, by and with the concurrence of the City Council, do hereby proclaim June 12, 2024, as Wycoff Quadruplets Day. Let us join together in celebration, honoring the enduring legacy of the Wycoff quadruplets and reaffirming our commitment to resilience, compassion, and community spirit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Sac City, Iowa to be affixed this 14th Day of May, 2024.

Scott Bundt, Mayor
