Tournament Information

The Men's College Basketball Tournament starts runs March 20th, 2025 at Noon ET and runs through the Championship game ending April 7th, 2025 at Midnight ET. The Sunday prior to the start of the Men's College Basketball Tournament is called "Selection Sunday". Selection Sunday occurs March 16th, 2025. On Selection Sunday, Selection Committee will announce the bracket pairings for the first-round games. There will be several "play-in" games prior to the start of the tournament. Winners of these games qualify for the final four spots in the Men's College Basketball Tournament. However, for this contest, the winner of each "play-in" game will be named the "Play-in Winner", so it is not necessary to guess the winner of any "play-in" game.

Shortly after the bracket pairings are announced on March 16th, 2025, the complete bracket pairings will be available for all players. At this time, each player will be allowed to login and make their selections for their chance to win the contest. The deadline to make selections is March 20th, 2025 at the tip-off of the first scheduled game. All picks must be successfully saved by or before this deadline.

Making Your Selections

Players can make their selections by going to the selection page. >From this screen, players will make their selections. To make your team selections, simply click the team name to advance them to the next round. If you make a mistake, you can select the opposite team in the previous round or you can also choose the reset button and start over again. It's that easy. After you have completed the bracket, you must click the save button to confirm and store your bracket. Once you click the save button, your picks will display as stored.

Selecting Teams Close To The Deadline

Any player attempting to make team selections close to the deadline risks the chance of not getting in his/her changes on time. We are not responsible for late entries, server congestion, faulty Internet connections, etc., which may cause the changes to your picks to not be made.

Winning the Game

Players are ranked according to their cumulative point score. The player with the most points at the end of the game is the cumulative points winner. There may or may not be a prize for the cumulative points winner. Please visit the Prize section to see what prizes (if any) are being awarded for this contest. In the event of a tie between two (2) or more entries, the winning entry will be determined by the following tiebreakers, in order of listing:

Tiebreaker #1 - Closest To Total Points Scored In Final Game (Based On Absolute Value)

Tiebreaker #2 – If two players have the same value for Tiebreaker #1, advantage goes to the player who over-predicted (predicted more points)

Tiebreaker #3 – Most Correct Picks For All Rounds

Tiebreaker #4 – Most Correct Picks In Round 1

Tiebreaker #5 - Most Correct Picks In Round 2

Tiebreaker #6 - Most Correct Picks In Round 3

Tiebreaker #7 - Most Correct Picks In Round 4

Tiebreaker #8 - Most Correct Picks In Round 5

Tiebreaker #9 - Most Correct Picks In Round 6

Tiebreaker #10 – Bracket Having The Highest Risk Percentage

Tiebreaker #11 – Random Drawing

Tiebreaker #1 calculation: If in the final game there are 100 points scored, and you predicted 88 total points, this tiebreaker's value will be 12. If you predicted 113, your tiebreaker will be 13. This value is determined by how many points you are under or over the official total points scored in the final game.

Tiebreaker #2 calculation: If in the final game there are 100 points scored, and you predicted 88 total points, and someone else you are tied with predicted 112 total points, advantage goes to the user who selected 112 because they over-predicted.

Tiebreaker #10 calculation: Each bracket is evaluated using the exclusive risk assessor, which computes the risk of each chosen upset versus historical tournament results. The bracket that is deemed riskiest by this methodology wins this tiebreaker.

Any further ties are left as ties in the standings. The tie-breaking system below represents the only tiebreaking system. In all cases, an entry that does not win a tiebreaker is eliminated from consideration.

Round Tiebreakers

Players are ranked according to their cumulative round score also. The player with the most points at the end of the round wins that particular round. In the event of a tie between two (2) or more entries, the winning entry will be determined by the following tiebreakers, in order of listing:

Tiebreaker #1 - Most Correct Picks For All Rounds

Tiebreaker #2 – Most Correct Picks In Each Previous Round, Individually, Starting With Round 1.

Tiebreaker #3 – The Bracket With The Highest Risk Percentage

Tiebreaker #4 - Random drawing

Tiebreaker #2 calculation: If we are in round 3, we will look at how many correct picks there were in round 1. If there is a tie, we will look at how many correct picks were in round 2. If there is still a tie, we will look at how many correct picks were in round 3.

Tiebreaker #3 calculation: Each bracket is evaluated using the exclusive risk assessor, which computes the risk of each chosen upset versus historical tournament results. The bracket that is deemed riskiest by this methodology wins this tiebreaker.

In all cases, an entry that does not win a tiebreaker is eliminated from consideration.
