

LIVING THE DASH — DAY FIVE

Finish the Dash Strong

Scripture:

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” — 2 Timothy 4:7

The goal of your life is not simply to make it through.

The goal is to finish well.

Anyone can start with excitement.

Anyone can believe when things are easy.

But finishing strong requires endurance, surrender, and unwavering trust in God.

There will be days when your faith feels fragile.

Moments when your strength is gone.

Seasons when answers seem delayed and the road ahead unclear.

Yet this is where your dash becomes its most beautiful.

You finish strong when you choose hope in hard seasons.

You finish strong when you keep loving after disappointment.

You finish strong when you remain faithful even when the outcome is uncertain.

Finishing strong does not mean you never fall.

It means you never stop getting back up.

Your faithfulness today becomes your legacy tomorrow.

One day your dash will close.

But your impact will continue in the lives you touched, the prayers you prayed, the hope you carried, and the love you poured out.

Live each day with eternity in mind.

Live with courage in your choices.

Live with grace in your relationships.

Live with trust in your Savior.

When the final chapter is written, may it be said:

She kept the faith.

He stayed the course.

They finished strong.

How do I want my dash to be remembered when my race is complete?

Jesus, help me remain faithful in every season. When I am weary, strengthen me. When I am uncertain, guide me. When my journey ends, let my life testify of Your goodness. In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.
