

LIVING THE DASH — DAY FOUR

Purpose Fuels the Dash

Scripture: “For we are God’s workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.” — Ephesians 2:10

There is a reason you are here.

Not a general reason.

A specific one.

Before you ever took your first breath, God already had assignments waiting for you. He formed your personality, your passions, your experiences, and even your struggles with intention. Nothing about you is accidental.

So many people drift through life searching for purpose while standing in the middle of it.

Your pain has purpose.

Your story has assignment.

Your survival has meaning.

The very things you thought disqualified you are the very tools God is using to qualify you for what’s next.

Purpose does not always look like a grand stage or loud applause.

Sometimes purpose looks like:

- Showing up when you are tired
- Speaking hope when you are hurting
- Staying faithful in the small things
- Being steady when others are shaking

When you walk in your purpose, your dash becomes powerful.

Your ordinary days begin to carry eternal weight.

You do not need to have everything figured out.

You only need to take the next faithful step.

Every time you choose obedience, heaven leans in.

What has God been nudging me toward that I've been hesitating to step into?

God, align my heart with Your purpose for my life. Help me trust the process, the timing, and Your plan. Use my life to bring hope, healing, and light. In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.
