

Faith in the In-Between

Living the Gospel Where Life Actually Happens

Day One — Faith Beyond the Pew

Scripture: “Be doers of the word, and not hearers only.” — James 1:22

Faith often feels strongest when we’re surrounded by worship music, Scripture, and people who believe like we do. But real faith is revealed when we leave the building and step back into real life.

Faith beyond Sunday shows up when the encouragement fades and the responsibilities return. It’s choosing honesty when exaggeration would be easier, patience when irritation feels justified, and obedience when no one is applauding.

You leave church feeling encouraged, but by Monday morning the schedule is packed and stress is high. Instead of snapping at the first inconvenience, you pause, pray, and choose grace. That small decision is faith in action.

Reflection:

- Where does my faith feel strongest?
- Where does it feel hardest to live out?

Prayer:

Lord, help my faith move from inspiration to action. Amen.

Action Step:

Ask God each morning this week: “How can my faith guide my choices today?”
