Domash unable to appear; KLMJ adds McVey to “Tuesday on the Town” Lineup

Hampton, Iowa – OnTheGoMedia management was recently informed that Ken Domash will be unable to join us on Tuesday, June 3rd due to unforeseen circumstances. We consider Ken a friend and look forward to welcoming him back to Hampton and the KLMJ studios in the near future. In light of this change, we’re excited to announce that Jake McVey will be stepping in to take the stage on June 3rd. Much like Ken, Jake brings a high-energy performance that will surely get the crowd moving and help us kick off the Tuesday on the Town series in style. The community comes together for music, local fundraising, and enjoying time with neighbors and friends every Tuesday in June. Highlighted each week by the renowned Hampton Municipal Band, the event supports various local non-profits and charities, with the fundraising efforts sponsored by generous local businesses.

Event Schedule:

June 3 – Jake McVey

Jake McVey is a seasoned performer who plays over 250 shows a year, earning a devoted fan base with his electrifying stage presence and catchy, heartfelt songs. With a work ethic rooted in his Iowa roots, McVey has shared the stage with major country acts like Blake Shelton, Thomas Rhett, and Luke Bryan. His song “Never Give Up” and its upcoming music video, which honors hardworking community members and first responders, has struck a chord with audiences and showcases his genuine connection to his fans.

June 10 – Due West

Nashville-based trio Due West will bring their signature harmonies and country sound to the stage on June 10. Since forming in 2004, they've earned recognition with chart-topping singles like "Things You Can't Do In A Car" and their latest single, "Only Heart I'm Breaking". Their latest album, UNBROKEN, is the culmination of nearly two decades of success, and their live performance is sure to captivate the crowd with their authentic country sound.

June 17 – Tori Rose

On June 17, Tori Rose will take the stage with her blend of traditional and contemporary country music. Originally from southwestern Pennsylvania, Tori started her music career at age 12 and has already made a name for herself by performing at major venues like Disney Springs and Ole Red. With a sound reminiscent of Dolly Parton and Carrie Underwood, her autobiographical song "17" connects deeply with fans, and she is eager to share more of her authentic story with the crowd. Listen for Tori's latest single, "If Drinking Was a Sport" on KLMJ.

June 24 – Kelly & Sarah

Returning to Hampton after their introduction on KLMJ's Morning Show with Beth Strand to close out the month, Kelly & Sarah will perform on June 24. These twin sisters, originally from El Paso, IL, have made waves in Nashville since 2020 with their rich harmonies and relatable country music. Their singles, such as "Wild Like Waylon" and "Midwestern Tornado," have earned airplay across Europe. The duo will also perform their latest hit, "Well Whiskey," showcasing their playful lyricism and unmistakable sister harmonies.

Don't miss out on this exciting summer series! Join us for Tuesday on the Town, where great music, community spirit, and giving back come together.
