OnTheGoMedia Announces Intent to Acquire Hampton Chronicle

Hampton, Iowa – OnTheGoMedia, Inc., the parent company of 104.9 KLMJ, Hampton and 98.9 KQCR, Parkersburg (99 The Wave), is pleased to announce it has entered into a Letter of Intent to purchase certain business opportunities and assets of the Hampton Chronicle from Mid America Publishing. This strategic acquisition aims to preserve the legacy of local journalism in the Hampton community following the Chronicle's scheduled final edition on April 1, 2026.

Under the terms of the preliminary agreement, OnTheGoMedia intends to acquire the newspaper's brand name, trademarks, subscribers, advertising, content library and archives. "Our mission has always been to keep our community connected and informed," said Shawn Dietz, President of OnTheGoMedia, Inc. "By bringing the Hampton Chronicle brand under our umbrella, we can ensure that its storied history continues and that local news remains a priority for our listeners and readers alike."

As part of the transition, OnTheGoMedia is also pleased to announce that Editor Jennifer Burnham will remain in her position and will be a vital part of the overall news operation moving forward. While the Chronicle is expected to conclude its current operations at the start of April, OnTheGoMedia plans to continue distribution through a third-party relationship that has yet to be formalized as well as its existing digital and broadcast platforms. The goal is to have a seamless transition for local subscribers and advertisers.

The transaction is subject to a brief due diligence period and the execution of a definitive purchase agreement, with a targeted closing date of April 1, 2026.
