OnTheGoMedia Completes Acquisition of the Hampton Chronicle

Hampton, Iowa – OnTheGoMedia, Inc., parent company of 104.9 KLMJ-FM and 99 The Wave (98.9 KQCR-FM), officially completed the acquisition of the Hampton Chronicle on April 2, 2026. This move ensures the continuation of the community's print edition, with the first issue under new ownership arriving April 8th.

A key part of the strategy to maintain the print publication is increasing subscriber volume. To encourage this growth, OnTheGoMedia is introducing a new annual subscription rate of $65—a savings of over 15% off newsstand pricing. The upcoming edition will also debut a new weekly "Athlete of the Week" feature to highlight local student-athletes.

"We will keep local news strong and accessible," said Shawn Dietz, President of OnTheGoMedia. "By maintaining the print tradition and lowering costs, we're making it easier for more people to stay connected to what's happening in our area." The transition includes the retention of key staff to ensure local continuity:

- Jennifer Burnham remains as Editor, working with existing RadioOnTheGo News staff to integrate content across platforms.
- Noah Regan joins as Graphic Designer and advertising sales support.

This acquisition combines the Chronicle's legacy with OnTheGoMedia's digital and broadcast reach. The company advises that every effort is underway to ensure current subscribers and advertisers observe as seamless of a transition as possible. New subscribers are encouraged to sign up at the reduced rate to support local journalism.
