104.9 KLMJ Presents Premier “Tuesday on the Town” Lineup for 2026

Hampton, Iowa – 104.9 KLMJ is excited to announce the lineup for Tuesday on the Town, a summer tradition that brings great music, local fundraising, and community together every Tuesday in June. As in years past, this annual series at Hampton’s Band Shell Park features an up-and-coming Nashville artist alongside the famed Hampton Municipal Band each week. Various local non-profits and charities benefit from each Tuesday’s fundraising efforts, sponsored by generous local businesses.

Event Schedule:

June 2 – Ken Domash

Returning after family obligations forced a cancellation in 2025, and a popular 2024 performance, St. Louis native Ken Domash kicks off the series. Known for hits like “Countrified” and “Ding Dang Darn It,” Ken blends ‘90s country with classic rock. His latest effort, 20 Different Routes, is a testament to his journey, full of grit and heartfelt storytelling.

June 9 – Jack Jensen Wibholm

Small-town Iowa farmer Jack Jensen Wibholm brings his debut single, “Under That Oak Tree,” to the stage. Inspired by his life in Alden, Iowa, Jack’s music is a blend of faith, family, and farming. Whether he’s tending to livestock or playing the State Fair, Jack delivers an authentic country sound rooted deeply in the Midwest.

June 16 – James Tamelcoff

Virginia native James Tamelcoff brings a classic country soul to Hampton. Influenced by legends like George Strait and Merle Haggard, Tamelcoff has opened for stars such as Travis Tritt and Chris Young. With a voice rooted in tradition, he brings timeless country storytelling into a new era.

June 23 – Cam Shelton

An ACMA Young Artist of the Year, Cam Shelton offers a gritty blend of red dirt country and Southern rock. A professional duck guide and performer since age four, Shelton's soulful voice and commanding stage presence have made him a rising national star with an "old soul" songwriting style.

June 30 – Adysen Malek

Closing the month is Texas native Adysen Malek. With her Top 20 hit "White Dress Direction" climbing the charts, Adysen's sound blends country with soulful blues. This "Texas New Female Vocalist of the Year" finalist brings a raw, emotional edge that perfectly rounds out the season.

Don't miss out on this exciting summer series! Join us for Tuesday on the Town, where great music, community spirit, and giving back come together.
