

October is Domestic Violence Awareness & Prevention Month

You're invited to join us for events scheduled in October 2024

October 4- Speak My Name at Christian Co. High School Football Game

"Speak My Name," brings awareness to Kentuckians who have tragically lost their lives to interpersonal violence (IPV) in the past year. Christian County High School plays Bowling Green High School at 7:00 p.m. at the Stadium of Champions. The presentation will be made at half time.

October 15- Proclamation & Vision Announcement

Hopkinsville Mayor and officials will sign a proclamation designating the month of October as Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention Month. Sanctuary, Inc. will unveil its NEW vision statement at the time of the ceremony. The ceremony will begin at 5:45 p.m. inside the Hopkinsville City Council Chambers.

October 17- Tea & Talk: Explore Healing Paths

A space to explore healing paths after experiencing interpersonal violence will be offered inside the community room of Milkweed Health and Harmony Emporium in Hopkinsville from 5:30-6:30 p.m. Complimentary tea will be offered. RSVP is requested by calling (270) 719-0951. Space is limited.

October 22- Celebrate Me: An Intro to Self-Care

Topics of self-esteem and self-care will be shared and discussed. Learn about ways you can love and choose to celebrate YOU. Meet advocates and therapists of Sanctuary, Inc. and learn more about preventative and restorative services available in Sanctuary's nine-county region. "Celebrate You" will be located at 201 E. Main St. Elkton, Ky and doors open at 6:00 p.m.

Wear Purple Wednesdays & T-Shirt Sales

Bring out your purple ties, dresses, and ribbons each Wednesday in October to show your support for ending domestic violence.

To purchase a t-shirt, visit our social media pages and website. Proceeds benefit Sanctuary, Inc.

Sanctuary, Inc. is the Pennyriple region's domestic violence shelter and sexual assault resource center. Services can be accessed 24/7 by calling 1-800-766-0000.
