

Clear Channel Sells Tupelo, Meridian to URBan

March 2, 2007 at 5:49 AM (PT)

Clear Channel has sold its six-station Tupelo, MS cluster and its five-station Meridian, MS cluster to URBan Communications for an undisclosed price. News of the sale to Kevin Wagner's company, the first in the auction process, came in a note sent to companies involved in possibly buying the 448 stations being spun off by Clear Channel.

URBan owns 13 other stations in four markets.
