

First Responders Grant Round 2023

Chief Dave Hall First Responders Fund

This fund has been established in memory of Dave Hall, who was dedicated to his profession, the community, and his family and friends. He proudly wore a badge for Sanilac County for 49 years as a member of the Sanilac County Sheriff, Croswell, Lexington, and Peck Police Departments. Day or night, on duty or off, his dedication as a first responder was unwavering. To provide funds for the education, training, or equipment needs of a department or another first responder is an ideal way to honor his memory.

Sefton-Leggett Legacy Fund

Gary & Donna Sefton and Paul & Faye Leggett believed strongly in the value of hard work, community, generosity and partnership. Their mission through this Legacy Fund is to afford designated Sanilac County organizations/institutions or individuals an opportunity to receive financial assistance for the benefit of all in the community. In the spirit of this, the Legacy Fund will support four distinct missions: The Sanilac County Sheriff's Office, The Sanilac County Humane Society, Veterans of Sanilac County, and Breast Cancer Support. This will be completed by assisting with grant matches, scholarships, equipment or specialized training to support the good work of residents in Sanilac County.

A.L. Degel / R.L. Shambarger First Responders Fund

This fund has been established by Richard Shambarger and Anna Degel in response to their respect for our local first responders. Anna and Richard recognize the unwavering commitment of First Responders to serving their community and are proud to commence this Fund in their honor. To provide funds for Sanilac County First Responders.

Donald and Diana Thomas First Responders Fund

This fund has been established to commemorate the many years of service that Don Thomas has given to the first responder community. To provide funds in support of the Carsonville-Port Sanilac Police, Fire, and EMS Support Services.

The Sanilac County Community Foundation's mission is to assist individuals and organizations with a desire to make a difference in our community through endowed philanthropy.
