

Blue Ridge Parkway

Upcoming Programs

Friday, July 26, 2019

Linville Falls Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 316

7:00 pm- Aquatic Adaptation

What does it take to live, survive, and make you home in an environment full of water? Come and join a ranger to explore the world of various animals found in or near the water along the Blue Ridge Parkway, and learn how they have adapted to meet the demands of the aquatic environment.

Approximately 45 minutes in length

Saturday, July 27, 2019

Linville Falls Visitor Center- Milepost 316

10:00 am- Snakes; the Unexpected Friend

More than any other forest animal, Snakes are often given the worst reputation. Come learn from a ranger the role they play in the forest and our lives, as well as what to look for on the trail.

Museum of North Carolina Minerals- Milepost 331

11:00 am- Wild for Water

Ever wonder what the water cycle is and how it relates to the world around us? This kids based program will explore the nearby waters to examine the ecology of a mountain stream and look to understand how the water cycle is seen along the Blue Ridge Parkway.

Linville Falls Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 316

7:00pm – Appalachian Storytelling

In Appalachia, a story is not mere entertainment. They have the power to show us who we really are, while preserving the mountains' history and culture like no other medium. Join storyteller Elizabeth Baird Hardy, who has performed at festivals across the Southeast, as she shares her original stories collected through years of research. It may inspire you to save your own family stories before they are gone forever.

Approximately 45 minutes in length

ALL PROGRAMS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Special thanks to Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation, Eastern National, and FRIENDS of the Blue Ridge Parkway for their financial support of these programs

Inquiries regarding the Blue Ridge Parkway and its activities are welcomed and should be addressed to:

Superintendent
Blue Ridge Parkway
199 Hemphill Knob Road
Asheville, North Carolina 28803