MARK YOUR CALENDAR

A lot of toe tapping will be happen'n at the Kiplinger Arena, Red Willow Fairgrounds, in November when 2019 Academy of Country Music's New Female Artist of the Year, Ashley McBryde, comes to McCook. The super-charged show will help raise funds for Community Hospital's Concert for Healthcare and specifically, the Cardiopulmonary Rehabilitation Center's Heart to Heart campaign. Mark your calendar, November 9 at 7 pm to not miss one of Rolling Stone's "Artists You Need to Know." McBryde's songs include "Girl Goin' No Where," "The Jacket," and "A Little Dive Bar in Dahlenega." Winner of the 2019 CMT Music Award for "Breakthrough Video of the Year" for "Girl Goin' Nowhere," her award-winning song video is also the name of her tour. Attendees can enjoy a beer garden and other concessions. Tickets go on sale September 1 through Ticket Storm at www.ticketstorm.com. For more information, contact Community Hospital Health Foundation at 308-344-7222 and go online at www.chmccook.org.

MCCOOK WOMAN DIES IN COLLISION

A 33-year-old McCook woman died in a collision about 7 a.m. Thursday on U.S. Highway 83, about five miles south of Lake Maloney. Stephanie Budke, 33, was driving a sedan that crossed the center line and struck a semitrailer truck head-on, according to the Nebraska State Patrol. Budke was the only person in the car. According to the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office, the northbound car had crossed into the southbound lane to pass another vehicle. The weather at the time was extremely foggy; witnesses believed the accident was fog-related. Drugs and alcohol do not appear to be factors, the Sheriff's Office said. The semi driver was Sohi Nahar Singh, 65, of Bakersfield, California, according to the patrol. Neither Singh nor a passenger in the semi was injured, according to the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office, which also responded to the crash. Singh was wearing a seat belt, according to the patrol. It was unknown whether Budke was wearing a seat belt. In addition to sheriff's deputies and patrol troopers, first responders from North Platte Rescue and Frontier County Rescue responded to the wreck. The wreck happened near the Nu Star Energy pipeline plant near mile marker 69. The collision completely blocked the highway, according to the Sheriff's Office.

LABOR DAY CELEBRATIONS

With the upcoming holiday period, along with a weekend filled with football and other sporting events, many Nebraskans will be out celebrating this Labor Day weekend. Whether that involves attending a family barbeque, hosting a Husker party, or visiting a local sports bar, AAA and Budweiser urge everyone to plan ahead by making arrangements for a safe ride home by choosing a Designated Driver or arranging for another form of safe transportation. Labor Day weekend provides a great opportunity to get together with friends and family, but a celebration should never turn into a tragedy because someone made a poor decision to drive while impaired," said Rose White, Public Affairs Director for AAA-The Auto Club Group. or those that don't plan ahead, Tow to Go will provide a safe way home. AAA members and non-members can call for Tow to Go service anytime Friday, Aug. 30 through 6 a.m. on Tuesday, Sep. 3. AAA will then safely transport them and tow their vehicle to a safe location within 10 miles. Since its inception in 1998, Tow to Go has safely removed more than 25,000 impaired drivers from the roadways. It is designed to be a safety net for motorists who did not plan ahead when drinking away from home on celebratory holidays. It is offered based on the availability of AAA drivers and tow trucks during times of high call volume.

QUOTE OF THE DAY

I believe that it is a mandatory Law of the Universe that on Fridays, you have to do something a little fun.
 ~Hanna Rhoades~

SPORTS

The McCook Lady Bison golfers kicked off their season with a quad yesterday in Cambridge. No team scores were kept. Kaylee Puckett led the MHS girls with a round of 49. Hannah Goltl was next with a score of 52 and Brooke Stewart 58. The Lady Bison travel to Sidney on Monday. The Lady Bison softball team will travel to Gothenburg for their season opening games later today. The Bison boys tennis team will host their Red/White scrimmage at the Bison Tennis Courts today.

The McCook Community College volleyball team overcame a slight case of opening-night jitters in the first set of the season but went on to sweep Garden City Community College Thursday night 27-25, 25-15 and, 25-18 in the Peter and Dolores Graff Events Center. The Lady Indians came out strong in the first set to take a comfortable lead, but stalled just enough to let the Broncbusters back into the set. "I think that just goes back to how young we are (four sophomores and 10 freshmen) -- and I may be saying that all season -- but it does take time for the girls to be able to work together as a team," said MCC Coach Hayley Kobza. The Lady Indians will see some familiar and motivated foes in the Mid-Plains Subway Invite in North Platte. The Lady Indians will start the day Friday with a 3 p.m. game with Eastern Wyoming then take on Durham College at 7 p.m. On Saturday, MCC plays Hesston College (Kan.) at 10 a.m. and Garden City at 2 p.m. Durham College of Oshawa, Ontario has been in McCook since Sunday for preseason training and a cultural exchange with the MCC volleyball team. The Lords played Western Nebraska in the early game Thursday at the Peter and Dolores Graff Events Center and lost in three sets 25-20, 25-14, 25-19.
