- » Be their sixth straight loss.
- » Make Paul Mills 8-9 as Wichita State head coach.

THE SHOCKS, IN SHORT

- » Wichita State returns only 20.3 percent of its scoring from a season ago, having lost its top four scorers. - » Wichita State has only two true freshmen on the roster in Joy Ighovodja (Nigeria) and Yanis Bamba (Canada).

RECORD BOOK WATCH

- » Quincy Ballard is on pace to shatter the single season school record for field goal percentage.
- » Through 16 games Ballard is shooting 68.5% (50-for-73) from the field. The current school record is 61.6% by Steve Grayer set in 1987-88.
- » That number would rank 2nd nationally but to qualify players must average 5 FGM per game. Currently Ballard is at 3.1 FGM per game.
- » On the defensive end, Ballard is trending towards a top five season blocking shots. He's currently fourth on the single season blocks per game list.
- » Ballard needs just 15 blocks to move into the top 10 on the single season total blocks list.

Jan. 14, 2024 | Wichita, Kan. / Charles Koch Arena

MEMPHIS	49	63	-	112
WICHITA STATE	46	40	-	86

- » Wichita State (8-8, 0-3) suffered its fifth straight loss, its longest since losing six in a row from Dec. 28, 2008 to Jan. 14, 2009. Wichita State hadn't allowed 100 points since 1994 when Drake scored 109.
- » The 112 points were the fifth most a Wichita State team has allowed in school history.
- » Memphis (15-2, 4-0) eclipsed the century mark with 6:24 remaining on the way to its 10th straight win.
- » Colby Rogers scored 14 of his 20 points after halftime, marking his fifth 20-point outing of the season. Harlond Beverly finished with 17 points on 8-of-11 shooting to go with six assists. Dalen Ridgnal scored 13 of his 15 points in the first half – 12 of the 15 coming from behind the three-point line.
- » In his return to Wichita, Jaykwon Walton scored a game-high tying 23 points behind 6-of-8 shooting from beyond the arc. Jahvon Quinerly recorded a double-double with 23 points and 11 assists. David Jones came in averaging 21.0 points per game, 10th best in the NCAA, and was a big reason the game turned. He scored 17 of his 19 points in the second half.
- » Wichita State shot a season-high 55 percent from the field, including a season-best 13-of-25 from long range. Memphis converted on 64.7 percent of its field goal tries, including a staggering 19-of-30 from three.
- » Memphis would lead by as many as six in the first 20 minutes and Wichita State by five in the opening minutes. With the Tigers holding a 49-43 lead in the final seconds, Ridgnal cashed in his fourth triple to make it 49-46 at the half.
- » Memphis got it rolling behind Jones' hot hand. Five straight points from Jones made it 57-52, and from there it started to snowball. A 25-8 run for the Tigers turned a close game into a 20-point deficit.

Memphis - 112 Record: 15-2 (4-0)

THE SERIES VS. FLORIDA ATLANTIC

- » This is just the second meeting all-time between Wichita State and Florida Atlantic.
- » Wichita State won the only other matchup in the 1998-99 season opener back on Nov. 18, 1998 in Henry Levitt Arena, 88-85.
- » The Shockers held off the Owls behind a pair of 20-point performances from Maurice Evans and Jason Perez.
- » Evans finished with 24 points on 8-of-20 shooting to go with six rebounds, four assists, three steals and two blocks.
- » Perez also added 24 points along with eight rebounds, three assists and two steals.
- » Wichita State had no answer for Florida Atlantic's Damon Arnette who recorded a monster double-double with 28 points and 12 rebounds.
- » Defense was optional that night as both teams shot better than 50 percent from the field. A good portion of the game was spent at the free throw line. The two teams combined for 54 fouls and 63 free throw attempts. Wichita State was 20-for-31 at the line and FAU, 25-for-32.
- » The game also featured 50 turnovers between the two teams.
- » Florida Atlantic will make the return trip to Wichita in a few weeks on Super Bowl Sunday, Feb. 11.

SCOUTING FLORIDA ATLANTIC

- » Led by sixth year head coach Dusty May, Florida Atlantic enters the matchup at 13-4 and 3-1 in league play - its inaugural year in the American Athletic Conference.
- » The Owls are coming off the greatest season in school history in 2022-23, appearing in the program's first NCAA Final Four. FAU finished the campaign 35-4.

- » Prior to 2022-23, the Owls had one previous appearance in the NCAA Tournament.
- » May was named the CBS Sports National Coach of the Year, as well as the NABC All-District 17 Coach of the Year, Conference USA Coach of the Year and Palm Beach County Coach of the Year.

- » May joined FAU after three years as an assistant coach at Florida, where he helped the Gators compile a 69-37 record, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. The Gators reached the second round of this year's tournament after advancing to the Elite Eight in 2017.
- » FAU enters the matchup ranked No. 23 in the AP Top 25 and receiving votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll. The Owls were ranked as high as No. 7 just a couple weeks ago following a double overtime win against No. 4 Arizona, 96-95.

Zion Pipkin | 6-1 | Guard | Houston, Texas | Legacy School of Sport Sciences

- » Pipkin is rated a 3-star recruit by 247Sports and the ninth-rated player in the state of Texas and No. 148 overall.
- » Pipkin is closing his prep career playing for former Shocker P.J. Cousnard at the Legacy School of Sport Sciences in the Houston area.
- » He committed to the Shockers over programs Colorado, Houston, TCU and others.
- » "Zion was a player we targeted early in this process due to his competitiveness, playmaking and scoring. He is a complete package at the guard position. He can defend the entire court and he has the playmaking ability to score on any matchup he is faced with during the course of the game. Shocker fans will love all that Zion brings to the court and his teammates will love the value he provides on both sides of the ball. Please join me in welcoming Zion to Wichita State." - Paul Mills

TJ Williams | 6-5 | Guard | Wichita, Kan. | Heights HS

- » Another Top-200 prospect comes from the Shockers' backyard. Heights star TJ Williams chose to stay home, picking the hometown Shockers over Iowa and Missouri.
- » The 6-foot-5 guard is the third-rated player in the state of Kansas and a 3-star prospect.
- » Williams averaged 16.7 points, 6.9 rebounds, 3.7 assists, 1.6 steals and 1.2 blocks last season at Heights, while leading the Falcons to their second straight appearance in the Class 6A state championship game.
- » He is a two-time all-conference and all-state selection. As a junior, Williams was named first team by the KBCA, Wichita Eagle and was Vype Wichita Player of the Year.
- » Williams is slated to join a list of hometown players to play for the Shockers in the past decade, which includes Evan Wessel (2011-16), Conner Frankamp (2015-18), Samajae Haynes-Jones (2017-19) and current Shocker Xavier Bell.
- » "I am ecstatic that TJ will be playing his college basketball in Wichita. He has had a sensational high school career in Wichita and I anticipate that his contributions collegiately will result in many memorable moments as well. He has offensive and defensive versatility, that is unique to his skillset and size, that will allow him to make the transition to college basketball quicker than most typical freshman. We are excited that one of Wichita's own will make his college debut in a Shocker uniform." - Paul Mills

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

- » Three of Wichita State's 14 players on the roster this season hail from international countries. That ties for the second-most on a season roster in school history. Only the 2012-13 team had more (4 - Chadrack Lufile, Nick Wiggins, Kadeem Coleby, Ehimen Orukpe).
- » Yanis Bamba (Canada), Joy Ighovodja (Nigeria) and Kenny Pohito (Sweden) are the foreign Shockers on the team.

14 PIECES OF FLAIR

- » For the second straight season the Wichita State men's basketball uniforms will feature a unique patch. In an effort to strengthen ties with the university community, student-athletes are sporting jersey patches representing the academic college in which their major resides.

OF MICS AND MEN

- » Play-by-play voice Mike Kennedy is in his 44th season with the team. The 75-year-old began calling Shocker hoops full time during the 1980-81 Elite Eight season. On Nov. 17, 2023 he was on hand for his 1,400th consecutive game for the Shockers.
- » Kennedy and his home broadcast partner Dave Dahl, are now in their 43rd year together and are Division I college basketball's longest-tenured duo. Dahl, a three-year varsity letterman at WSU from 1968-71, missed the 2011-12 season during a successful campaign for district court judge, but the tandem has otherwise been in place since 1980-81.

CHARLES KOCH ARENA

Arena Name	Charles Koch Arena
Pronunciation	Sounds like "Coke"
Court Name	Devlin Court
Opened	December, 1955
Previous Names	WU Fieldhouse (1955-64) WSU Fieldhouse (1964-68) Henry Levitt Arena (1969-2003)
Renovated/Rededicated as CKA	Fall, 2003
Nickname	"The Roundhouse"
Varsity Games Played	1,004
All-Time Record	764-240 (.761)
All-Time Attendance	8,722,554
CKA Era Record ('03-Pr.)	261-58 (.820)
Total Attendance	3,104,227

- » Wichita State's Charles Koch Arena, is often referred to as "the Roundhouse" for its unique circular shape. The building opened in December, 1955 and the 2023-24 season marks its 68th season of use. The Shockers have won over three-quarters of their games there all-time.
- » If visiting teams feel like the fans are right on top of them, it's because they pretty much are. Every seat is within 140 (horizontal) feet of center court, and in recent years just about all of them have been full. Since the start of the 2013-14 season, the Shockers have played in front of 83 capacity crowds and put together an incredible 130-25 record.
- » In summary: Large groups of loud people packed into a little space with a lot to cheer about. But don't forget the fifth "L." --- the lid. The arena's circular and highly-reflective dome roof amplifies sound and funnels it downward toward center court, raising the volume from ear-splitting to deafening with readings as high as 120 db.
- » WSU's rise to national relevance began in 2003 with the completion of the Roundhouse Renaissance. A $25 million dollar construction project turned an aging Henry Levitt Arena into one of college basketball's best and most-intimidating venues. The building reopened as Charles Koch Arena for the start of the 2003-04 season.
- » In the 20 seasons since the renovation, the Shockers are 261-58 on campus.
- » A streak of 244-consecutive regular season crowds of 10,000+ ended during COVID when local health restrictions forced the Shockers to cap capacity. The streak lasted just shy of 16 years (Dec. 2004 to Dec. 2020).

WHAT'S A WUSHOCK?

Legend has it, the name "Shockers" first appeared in 1904 on a poster advertising a football game between Wichita State (then known as Fairmount College -- and the Chilocco Indians. The team's manager chose the name because many of the players earned money during the off-season harvesting (or "shocking") wheat in the surrounding fields. When it came time to bring the name to life, student's created WuShock, a big, bad, muscle-bound bundle of wheat whose name is derived from a period in time when the school was simply Wichita University or "WU".

Head Coach
PAUL MILLS

Wichita State announced Paul Mills as its 27th head men's basketball coach on March 22, 2023 and formally introduced him the following day.

"My family and I are extremely excited about being a part of Wichita State University," Mills said. "The rich history, winning tradition and unbelievable community support will keep us working on behalf of the GREATEST fans in all of college basketball. We can't wait!"

A longtime Baylor assistant under Scott Drew, Mills took his first head coaching job at Oral Roberts and ran with it, transforming the Golden Eagles from Summit League bottom dwellers to undefeated champions over a six-year span (2017-23) with NCAA tournament bids in two of the last three years.

In 2021 Mills became just the second coach to guide a No. 15 seed to Sweet 16, upsetting Ohio State and Florida in the first two rebounds before losing a heartbreaker to Arkansas in the South Regional Semifinal.

Mills raised the bar again in 2023 when he led ORU to a 30-5 record and swept the Summit's regular season and tournament crowns. The Golden Eagles became just the second team in conference history to go 18-0 and their No. 12 seed in the Big Dance was the program's best in nearly four decades.

Mills was a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award as well as the NABC's Skip Prosser Man of the Year honor, presented annually to a coach who achieves success on the basketball court and displays moral integrity off the floor."

Mills' teams are fast-paced, yet efficient, annually ranking among the NCAA leaders in tempo, scoring and three-point field goals while playing tough, gritty defense.

Over the years Mills has also demonstrated a knack for finding and developing talent. His greatest success story is 6-foot guard Max Abmas, an overlooked recruit, turned NBA prospect who scored more than 2,500 career points in Mills' system and was twice named Summit League Player of the Year.

Mills spent six seasons on the south side of Tulsa, Okla. rebuilding the program at Oral Roberts. He was 106-84, including 67-28 over the final three years.

ORU finished 30-5 during the 2022-23 season, including 21-0 against Summit League foes, becoming just the second team in conference history to run the table. The 12-seeded Eagles entered the NCAA tournament on a nation-best 17-game winning streak but fell to No. 5 Duke in the Round of 64.

Abmas earned Summit League Player of the Year for the second time and was a third team NABC All-American after ranking among the NCAA leaders in scoring (9th, 21.9 points), threes (6th, 3.50) and free throw percentage (5th, 91.9%).

Mills was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the first time after guiding ORU to its first 30-win season at the Division I level. He was also a finalist for the NABC's Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award, as well as the Hugh Durham Award (mid-major coach of the year) and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year honor, presented annually to a coach who achieves success on the basketball court and displays moral integrity off of it.

Mills and his 2020-21 team were an overnight sensation, four years in the making, bursting onto the national scene with a run to the NCAA Sweet 16.

With the foundation of Mills rebuild firmly in place, the Eagles played some of their best basketball down the stretch, winning the Summit League tournament as the No. 4 seed to secure the program's first NCAA tournament appearance since 2008.

Before making the trip to south Tulsa, Mills was at Baylor under Head Coach Scott Drew for 14 seasons – six as a staffer (2003-09) and the last eight as assistant coach (2009-17) -- helping the Bears graduate 36 of 38 seniors.

From 2003-17 Baylor played in seven NCAA tournaments, including a pair of NCAA Elite Eights and four Sweet 16s. The Bears were nationally-ranked for 10 straight seasons and reached No. 1 in the polls for the first time since school history during Mills' final year (2016-17).

Mills was on the Rice staff from 2002-03 and, before that, was head coach at Fort Bend Christian Academy from 1998-2002. He led the school to its first-ever TAPPS 4A Final Four and was the South Region Coach of the Year and a four-time District Coach of the Year. Prior to his time in Sugar Land, Texas, Mills won three straight district championships as the head coach at North Belt Christian.

He is a 1996 graduate of Texas A&M with a degree in finance and completed a Master of Biblical and Theological Studies from Dallas Theological Seminary in the summer of 2020. He and his wife, Wendy Scott-Mills, have two daughters, Audrey and Abbey.
