

Snow Day Memorandum of Understanding

I, _____ (child's name) am aware that today will be the THIRD DAY IN A ROW of no school. I know my (mom/dad) (circle one) loves me very much, but I'm also driving (her/him) (circle one) crazy. To help (him/her) with the little bit of sanity (he/she) has left, I promise I will:

(Please circle three)

Clean my room

Read at least 10 books quietly and independently

Give myself a timeout after fighting with my (brother/sister)

Not fight with my (brother/sister) to begin with

Listen to my (mom/dad) the first time they ask me to do something

Listen to my (mom/dad) the second time they ask me to do something

Listen to my (mom/dad) the third time they ask me to do something

Get dressed in something other than my underwear today

Limit my video game playing to three hours

Feed the dog

Eat more than string cheese, Saltines and Dannimals today

By circling these, I promise to complete them by the end of the day _____ (date)
