

Today's Q106 Winter Preparedness Checklist

- Sturdy ice scraper and snow brush. This is one of the most crucial things to keep in your car during winter.
- Shovel.
- Gloves and other winter clothing, always accessorize, don't wear mittens, you can't update facebook in mittens.
- T-shirt Cannon, this will only be needed in rare occasions, but better to be safe than sorry.
- Blanket, maybe a Snuggie but emergency responders might make fun of you, use at own risk.
- Emergency flares or reflectors, or a disco ball, disco ball will probably get the best results.
- Rock salt, sand, or kitty litter, salt and sand should is still in your suitcase in the trunk, from your last trip to the beach.
- First aid kit.
- Tacos, while impractical to store, they will make any emergency situation much more enjoyable.
- Extra windshield washer fluid, remember that is NOT blue kool-aid, fool me once...
- Flashlight, bring 2 that way you can play flashlight tag with a friend!
- Rope or chain or straps, good for winter, but if you get pulled over in the warm months with rope and a shovel, you will have some explaining to do...
- Jumper cables.
- Small tool kit.
- Sunglasses, these will help you look cool and impress the tow truck driver who shows up to pull you out of the ditch.
- Cell phone charger, last thing you want it to be broke down on the side of the road and not able to hashtag it.
- Water, tacos will make you thirsty.
