NEW GMR INTERIM LICENSE EXTENSION PROCEDURE &
RMLC/GMR LITIGATION UPDATE

Dear Broadcasters,

We write on behalf of both the Radio Music License Committee (“RMLC”) and Global Music Rights, LLC (“GMR”) to notify you that RMLC and GMR are engaged in good faith negotiations to settle the long-running RMLC-GMR lawsuits. Although the parties have not yet reached final terms of a settlement, RMLC and GMR have agreed on preliminary terms for a settlement, subject to certain caveats and details that remain to be worked out. Both parties are optimistic that we will have final settlement terms to jointly share with you in the very near future. In order to allow RMLC and GMR to continue to work in good faith towards a final settlement, GMR has agreed to offer a 3-month extension of the current interim license, which is set to expire on December 31, 2021. This 3-month extension will be on the same terms (including price) as your current interim license.

PLEASE READ: You will not receive a communication from GMR containing an interim license agreement as you have in the past. Instead, to secure your company’s 3-month interim license extension, please visit the following website and complete the online form: <https://globalmusicrights.com/interimextension>. In order to be eligible for the 3-month extension, you must opt-in by completing the online form no later than December 29, 2021.

Again, the current GMR interim license is set to expire on December 31, 2021, and failure to secure this 3-month extension will result in your company being unlicensed and unauthorized to perform the music represented by GMR as of January 1, 2022.

Should you have any questions regarding this interim license extension, please contact GMR at interimextension@globalmusicrights.com.

Thank you,

The Radio Music License Committee

Thank you,
